CFF is a cultural event that tends to promote cinema and visual cultures in all its forms, for this reason there are both competitive and non-competitive sections in the event.

SECTIONS

CFF proposes to become the voice of documentary film with an ethnographic vocation but will not deny in the future to create a section dedicated to long and short films. Along with any creative retrospective on the cinema tout court, the festival opens two competitive sections destined exclusively to the image.

Documentalia: contest for video, videoart, documentaries, short films and movies with an ethnographical cut (for the first edition we accept works without limits of time and realized for over five years)

Photographa: a photo competition, a photo-tales where we'll be accepted works from a minimum of 5 frames with a maximum of 30.

HOW TO TAKE PART

CFF is sensitive to the environmental issues associated with postal shipment for this we chose to receive videos exclusively from the network. Works (video or photo-tales) will have to be uploaded to a user-selected internet platform (dropbox, etc.) or sent via a data exchange service (wetransfer, etc.).

At the same time loading online should be sent an email to info@campaniafilmfestival.it specifying the web address from which we can download the work and necessarily attaching to it:

- the application form and the release downloaded from the site, mandatorily filled in and signed (scanning);
- three representative images of the work in jpeg format with a minimum resolution of 72 dpi - 2048 pixels long side);
- (no mandatory) a declaration of the author on the work presented at the festival (maximum one typewritten page);
- (no mandatory) a link to download a trailer and/or viewable online, to use as a promo.

CFF signing up is free and no age limit. The works and their cards should be sent to the festival by midnight on November 26, 2017, under penalty of exclusion.

The movies will not be returned and will become part of the archive of the Festival office. The direction of the Festival reserves the right to promote and spread some works (in its absolute discretion) also at other festivals, organizations, and events.

FORMAT

Participating works in CFF will have the following formats:

- The videos will be posted in MPG4 format or MOV, with a resolution of 1920 x 1080 (we will not accept movies with a size less than 720 x 576), the uploaded file should not exceed the weight of 1 GB;
